Headline:

North and far west cloudy Wednesday, bright elsewhere, showers east.

This Evening and Tonight:

Showers in east dying out this evening, sunny end to the day over the west mainland. Largely dry overnight with some clear spells, but mist, low cloud over the Isles and the northwest, and parts of the northeast.

Thursday:

The Northern and Western Isles, and the north mainland mainly cloudy, with some coastal mist or haar and patchy drizzle. Some sunshine elsewhere but a few showers in the east.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:

Showers breaking out by day, these heavier and more widespread over the weekend. Haar will affect the east coast at times. Quite warm in the sunnier spells.
